Self-Directed Brokerage Option

In addition to the Plan's designated investment alternatives, you have the option to invest in the Plan's Self-Directed Brokerage Account (SDBA) where you have the ability to invest in open end mutual funds.

The initial minimum amount you may transfer to the SDBA is $0.00. Additionally, 100% of your aggregate core account balance and SDBA balance, which includes the existing assets held in the SDBA, may be transferred. Transfers are only allowed from vested assets in your core investment options. The minimum subsequent transfer amount is limited to $0.00. Your payroll contributions cannot be directed into the SDBA directly; they must continue to be directed to one or more of the Plan's core investment options. Additionally, you will be charged a $50.00 annual fee on or about November 1st, irrespective of when the SDBA was established.

To place a trade in your SDBA, you must contact TD Ameritrade Participant Services at 1-866-766-4015 or log on to your account at www.tdameritraderetirement.com. Please note that restrictions and limitations on placing trades in the SDBA may apply; market volatility, volume and system availability may delay account access and trade executions. In all circumstances, it is your responsibility to make sure your order information is correct; that the execution of an order does not conflict with any outstanding orders; and that your brokerage account has sufficient funds to purchase, or the shares or positions to sell, the specified security.

Certain fees associated with the purchase and sale of a security through this account may exist and could vary across investments. For more information regarding trading fees and expenses in connection with this account, please refer to the TD Ameritrade Commissions and Service Fee schedule. A copy of the TD Ameritrade SDBA Commission Schedule is also available at <http://tdameritraderetirement.com/forms/ACS1009.pdf>. Additionally, you may refer to the applicable fund prospectus for specific fund related fees and expenses.

For material and information about the SDBA, please log onto www.voyaretirementplans.com.

Document Summary

This document has 2 parts. Part I consists of performance information for plan investment options. This part shows you how well the investments have performed in the past. Part II shows you the fees and expenses you will pay if you invest in an option.

Part I and Part II. Performance Information and Fee Information

Table 1 focuses on the performance of investment options that do not have a fixed or stated rate of return. Table 1 shows how these options have performed over time and allows you to compare them with an appropriate benchmark for the same time periods. Past performance does not guarantee how the investment option will perform in the future. Your investment in these options could lose money. Information about an option's principal risks is available on the Web site[s].

All funds assume reinvestment of all dividends (ordinary income and capital gains) and are net of management fees and other fund operating expenses as well as separate account charges where applicable. The numbers may also reflect maintenance fees, administration fees, and/or deferred sales charges, if your contract is funded through a registered separate account. The table shows how these options have performed over time and allows you to compare them with an appropriate benchmark for the same time periods. Note that the benchmark performance does not reflect the fees and charges associated with the product and investment options in your particular contract.

Table 3 shows fee and expense information for the investment options listed in Table 1. Table 3 shows the Total Gross and Net Annual Operating Expenses of the options in Table 1. Net Operating Expenses are reduced by fund waivers and adjustments, when applicable. Annual Operating Expenses are expenses that reduce the rate of return of the investment option. Table 3 also shows Shareholder-type Fees. These fees are in addition to Annual Operating Expenses. To find additional information about your investments, please see applicable fund information in the appropriate documents made available to you (e.g. prospectus, Fund Fact Sheet, fund information section on the plan's web site, etc.).

Voya "Excessive Trading" Policy

Voya actively monitors fund transfer and reallocation activity within its variable insurance and retirement products to identify Excessive Trading. Voya currently defines Excessive Trading as: a) More than one purchase and sale of the same fund (including money market funds) within a 60 calendar day period (hereinafter, a purchase and sale of the same fund is referred to as a "roundtrip"). This means two or more round-trips involving the same fund within a 60 calendar day period would meet Voya's definition of Excessive Trading; or b) Six round-trips within a twelve month period.

Each fund available through Voya's variable insurance and retirement products, either by prospectus or stated policy, has adopted or may adopt its own excessive/frequent trading policy. Voya reserves the right, without prior notice, to implement restrictions and/or block future purchases of a fund by an individual who the fund has identified as violating its excessive/frequent trading policy. All such restrictions and/or blocking of future fund purchases will be done in accordance with the directions Voya receives from the fund.

Voya's Excessive Trading Policy does not apply to Employer Stock Funds, Fixed Account, Fixed Plus Account, Guaranteed Accumulation Account or Stabilizer.

The cumulative effect of fees and expenses can substantially reduce the growth of your retirement savings. Visit the Department of Labor's Web site for an example showing the long-term effect of fees and expenses at http://www.dol.gov/ebsa/publications/401k_employee.html. Fees and expenses are only one of many factors to consider when you decide to invest in an option. You may also want to think about whether an investment in a particular option, along with your other investments, will help you achieve your financial goals.

Please visit Voya Retirement Plans Website at www.voyaretirementplans.com for a glossary of investment terms relevant to the investment options under this plan. This glossary is intended to help you better understand your Options.
